

SPONSORED BY:

Location Map

Goodmans
Bay Adelaide Centre,
333 Bay St, Suite 3400
Toronto, Ontario M5H 2S7

Mini-symposium

Mexico Exploration

Finding the Treasure of the Sierra Madre and more

When: Wednesday April 9, 2014, 1:00-5:00 pm followed by refreshments until 6:30 pm

Where: Goodmans, 333 Bay St., Suite 3400, Toronto (see map)

Admission Cost: $80 for TGDG Members; $115 for non-members (includes annual membership); free for students (registration and student card required).

Registration: Pre-register and pay online at www.tgdg.net or contact us via contact@tgdg.net. Space is limited, so book early. Registration closes April 2. If space remains, registration is available at the door at a surcharge of $20.

Agenda

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 12:30 pm | Registration |
| 1:00 pm | Welcome and Introduction |
| 1:15 pm | Glen Jones (Director, Mining and Metals Database, SNL Financial) – Mexico Exploration — Trends and activities |
| 1:45 pm | Alejandro Kakarieka, VP Exploration, Torex Gold) – Geology of the Morelos skarn-hosted Au and Au-Cu-Ag deposits, Guerrero, Mexico |
| 2:15 pm | Jose Texidor (Principal Geologist, Primero Mining) – San Dimas mine - A history of continuous exploration success |
| 2:45 pm | Coffee break |
| 3:00 pm | Chris Rockingham (VP Exploration and Business Development, Aurico Gold) – The Geology of the El Chanate mine, Sonora, Mexico |
| 3:30 pm | Gassaway Brown (Sr Corporate Geologist, Goldcorp) - Geology and exploration of the Peñasquito Au-Ag-Zn-Pb ore system, Zacatecas, Mexico |
| 4:00 pm | John Read (Sr Geological Consultant, McEwen Mining) - El Gallo, Sinaloa, Mexico — From discovery to production |
| 4:30 pm | Manuel Padilla (Director Exploration, Mexico, Agnico Eagle) – La India - A new mine with lots of exploration potential |
| 5:00-6.30 pm | Networking and refreshments at Goodmans |