

Toronto Geological Discussion Group

Sponsors

Location Map

Twenty Toronto Street
20 Toronto St, 2nd floor
Toronto

Mini-symposium Innovation and Change in mineral exploration

When: Thursday November 24, 2016 from 1.00 to 5.10 pm followed by refreshments until 6:30 pm

Where: Twenty Toronto Street, 20 Toronto St., 2nd floor, Toronto (see map)

Admission Cost: $50 for TGDG Members; $85 for non-members (includes membership); free for students (registration and student card required). Online broadcast free (registration required).

Registration: Pre-register and pay online at www.tgdg.net or contact us via contact@tgdg.net. Space is limited, so book early. Registration closes November 17. If space remains, registration is available at the door at a surcharge of $20. Registration for the online broadcast closes November 24 morning.

Agenda

Registration

Introduction – Lynda Bloom (Analytical Solutions Ltd., Symposium leader)

KEYNOTE: Changing world - changing exploration – John F.H. Thompson (Cornell University, SEG Distinguished Lecturer)

Collaboration: The key to fundamentally transforming the minerals sector – Carl Weatherell (Canada Mining Innovation Council, ED & CEO)

Innovation and exploration – François Robert (Barrick Gold Corp.)

Coffee break

Metal Earth: An integrated 4D Metallogenic study of our Earth – Harold Gibson (MERC, Harquail School of Earth Sciences, Laurentian University)

Resource modelling: The next frontier for innovation – Oy Leuangthong, (SRK Consulting (Canada) Inc.)

ZTEM: Tracing its development from design innovation to discovery tool – Jean Legault (Geotech Ltd., Chief Geophysicist, Interpretation)

Networking and refreshments at Twenty Toronto Street